

Priestwick Sackeyfio

Director of PMP Soccer Camp

Priestwick Sackeyfio is recognized through the soccer world as an innovator and is distinguished by his excellent reputation as a developer of talent. In the United States, his youth teams have won numerous league titles and many summer tournaments. His teams are easily recognized by their exciting, attractive, free flowing, attacking style of play. This is all made possible because Priestwick sees to it his players develop an extremely high comfort level with the ball and play with intelligence as well as passion. The fact that his players are always highly recruited speaks volumes. In recognition of his ongoing contribution to the growth and development of the game, involving professionals to amateurs, collegiate to youth, boys and girls as well as men and women, Priestwick is highly praised in Ghana, West Africa, and Washington State.

Experience: Former Pro player at Ghana Akotex, Arena Sports Referee, personal youth & adult trainer, Former Staff coach, Shorewood High School; Head coach, Ajax Pacific FC; former Head coach, University Prep varsity girls (Coach of the Year, 1997-1998); former Head coach, Nathan Hale HS (boys & girls); GFA coaching license; former Staff coach, Emerald City FC; former SYSA, GSSL & Co- Rec referee.

"I have always felt that soccer is a game which repays the amount of work that an individual puts into it. If you are a young player, your performance will improve the more you practice to better your skills and your understanding of the game. And if you are a parent or one of soccer's millions of spectators, your enjoyment will increase the more you can comprehend what happens on the field in front of your eyes."
